We shall sell them at precisely the same figures as for last season, although the manufacturers' prices have advanced along the whole line. Look the stock over.

Our record on the $27.00 Eleven-Piece Oak Chamber Suit last week was one a day. The reason: People compared them with others.

A dog fight on Main street this forenoon developed several ludicrous features. The larger dog had a great desire to throw up the sponge but the smaller one, a bull dog, wouldn't let him. The larger animal saw an opening and made a break for it. The opening happened to be through the legs of a small boy who stood on the sidewalk, arms full of bundles. The opening was scarcely large enough for the dog and down went the boy, bundles and all, his legs knocked clean from under him. The momentary check in the larger dog's speed enabled his pugnacious adversary to catch up with him, and the set-to began again. At this point another canine attempted to join in as arbiter, and a passing teamster began to whale the peace-maker. It ended the encounter, at any rate.

The name is used so indiscriminately in connection with flimsy, ill-fitting Coats that it doesn't at all describe the smart, rainproof, dressy Overcoats which we are selling this Fall. We shall be pleased to show you. Look at our new Rain Coats whether you have one to buy, or have just bought one elsewhere. We should like to have you know the difference between our kind of garments and the other kind. Smartly tailored Rain Coats of Worsted, Cheviots, Coverts, perfect at every point, $10.00 to $25.00.
